LOCAL UM STUDENTS NAMED TO HOMECOMING ROYALTY COURT

MISSOULA --

Six University of Montana - Missoula students will make up the 1994 Homecoming Royalty court. Two of the students will be named king and queen Thursday, Oct. 6.

The announcement of the Homecoming king and queen will be part of the Singing on the Steps celebration at 7:30 p.m. on the steps of Main Hall.

The candidates for Homecoming queen are Carina Niedermier of Lethbridge, Alberta, Lesley Ross of Nillarville, Alberta, and Brenda Weyermann of Missoula.

Niedermier, a 1988 graduate of Kate Andrews High School, is a second-year graduate student in communication studies and plans to get a doctorate in communication studies or consulting. Head resident of Aber Hall, she is a member of Mortar Board and Delta Gamma. She is the daughter of Rose Niedermier and the late LeRoy Niedermier.

Ross, a 1991 graduate of Oilfields High School, is a senior majoring in organizational communication. She is president of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and is a member of Mortar Board and the Golden Key Honor Society. She plans to attend graduate school and work in public relations/marketing. She is the daughter of James D. and Gillian Ross.

Weyermann, a 1991 graduate of Big Sky High School, is a senior majoring in organizational communication. She is the vice president of Delta Gamma, treasurer for the Order of Omega, a Mortar Board officer and a member of the Campus Development Committee. She plans a career in consulting. She is the daughter of Gary and Mary Ellen Weyermann.

The candidates for Homecoming king are Roger Arthur Citron of Whitefish, Martin C. Meyer of Eugene, Ore., and Erick Lee Tombre of Bozeman.

Citron, a 1984 graduate of Whitefish High School, is a senior pharmacy major. He plans to pursue a doctorate and practice clinical pharmacy. He is the son of Sam and Mary Citron of Columbia Falls.

Meyer, a 1991 graduate of South Eugene High School, is a senior majoring in finance. A member of the Army ROTC and an officer in the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, he plans to fly helicopters for the U.S. Army. He is the son of Fred and Kitty Meyer.

Tombre, a 1991 graduate of Bozeman Senior High School, is a senior majoring in political science. A member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, he plans to attend law school. He is the son of Peggy Tombre of Bozeman and Matt Tombre of Edmonds, Wash.

The royal court will be honored at a reception at 8:15 p.m. Thursday in the Oval following the Singing on the Steps. UM's Homecoming celebration will continue through Saturday, Oct. 8.
